SUBJECT: JAPAN SUPPORTS UNSC RESOLUTION ON LEBANON

REF: STATE 128442

Classified By: Deputy Chief of Mission Joe Donovan Reason: 1.4 (b)(d).

(C) Upon receipt of NIACT reftel, Acting Political Minister Counselor contacted MOFA UN Policy Division Principal Deputy Director Kitamura on Sunday, August 6 to discuss the UNSC resolution on Lebanon. Drawing from reftel talking points, she urged Japan's prompt support for the resolution. Kitamura explained that he had already discussed the resolution with Japan's Mission to the UN and with others in the Ministry in Tokyo. While the draft required some further discussion before a final decision was reached, Japan in principle supported the resolution. He did not expect Japan to raise minor issues that could delay a vote. Japan's primary objective, he stressed, was to pass the resolution as quickly as possible in order to send a strong message to the international community.
